FEDERAL GRAND JURY RETURNS INDICTMENTS

Madison, Wisconsin -- A federal grand jury in the Western District of Wisconsin, sitting in Madison, returned the following indictments today. You are advised that a charge is merely an accusation and that a defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.

MADISON MAN CHARGED WITH BANK EMBEZZLEMENT

Scott C. Jensen, 36, of Madison, Wisconsin, is charged in an eight-count indictment with embezzling from customer accounts while employed as a personal banker at the Monona branch of M & I Bank.

The indictment alleges that from October 1999 until March 2004, Jensen knowingly embezzled a total of approximately $90,000 from eight different customer accounts and deposited the money into his personal investment account. M & I Bank absorbed the loss. None of the customers suffered a loss.

If convicted, Jensen faces a maximum penalty of 10 years in federal prison. The charges against Jensen are the result of an investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, with the assistance of M & I Bank Security. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Laura A. Przybylinski Finn.

CHICAGO MAN CHARGED WITH GUN & DRUG CRIMES

Terryon Carter, 24, of Chicago, Illinois, is charged in a two-count indictment with being a felon in possession of a firearm and possession with intent to distribute crack cocaine. The indictment alleges that Carter possessed the firearm, a .380 pistol, and the crack cocaine on January 6, 2007.

If convicted, Carter faces a maximum penalty of 10 years in federal prison on the firearm count and 20 years on the drug count. The charges against Carter are the result of an investigation by the Madison Police Department and the Dane County Narcotics and Gang Task Force. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Rita M. Rumbelow.

MADISON MAN CHARGED WITH ILLEGALLY POSSESSING AMMUNITION

Lenard T. Rogers, 27, of Madison, Wisconsin, is charged with being a felon in possession of ammunition. The indictment alleges that on January 8, 2007, Rogers possessed .44 magnum ammunition.

If convicted, Rogers faces a maximum penalty of 10 years in federal prison. The charge against Rogers is the result of an investigation by the Madison Police Department. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney David J. Reinhard.
